Evenings with the Songwriter Features Jenny Reynolds

(Lockhart) Austin artist Jenny Reynolds will be the featured guest for Evenings with the Songwriter on Tuesday, February 25, 7:00pm. The celebrated monthly series is produced and hosted by Lockhart songwriter Fletcher Clark at the historic Dr. Eugene Clark Library. Now in its tenth season, the series takes place on the last Tuesday of each month and is free to the public.

Following her personal mission statement “Work hard, be nice, keep moving,” Jenny Reynolds goes for things that keep her going. She moved to Austin in 2003, and has played The Old Settlers Music Festival, The Kerrville Folk Festival, The Cactus Cafe, and Threadgill’s World Headquarters. She was an Official Showcase Artist at SXSW 2008 and 2018, and was named “Best New Local Act” in the Austin Chronicle’s 2005 Critics Poll.

Reynolds’ CD, ‘Next To You’, featured Grammy Nominee Ruthie Foster, Rock n’ Roll Hall of Fame inductee Ian McLagan, Warren Hood, and Scrappy Jud Newcomb. She has also worked with Duke Levine, Kevin Barry and Brian Standefer. Her music has been on major network television and independent film, including ABC’s ‘All My Children’ and CBS’s ‘The District’. She is also the founder and producer of Austin’s ‘Williams Nite: A Tribute to Hank and Lucinda Williams’, a “kinda annual” show that benefits The SIMS Foundation.

Soon due for release is her latest CD, ‘Any Kind of Angel’, from Mak Hallman’s Congress House Studio in Austin. It features Jaimee Harris (harmonies), BettySoo (harmonies and accordion), Scrappy Jud Newcomb (guitar) and Warren Hood (fiddle).

“A winning way with a hook...” is what Paste Magazine wrote of Jenny. Rob Patterson wrote in Texas Music: “Aspiring troubadours migrating to Austin is often like coal to Newcastle, but Reynolds is a welcome ... gem.”

Evenings with the Songwriter: Jenny Reynolds, February 25, 2020

“I first met Jenny socially at a song circle, and I was immediately struck by the force of her songs and her delivery,” said host Fletcher Clark. “Later when I was mixing sound for a major Austin songwriter showcase event which included Jenny, I had a chance to experience her on stage – and with my microphones! That was when I could really tell.”

Celebrated artists such as Shake Russell, Tish Hinojosa, Vince Bell, Butch Hancock, Christine Albert, Dana Cooper, Susan Gibson, Ken Gaines, Rex Foster, Eric Taylor, Shelley King, Walt Wilkins, and scores more have been guests Evenings with the Songwriter. This Tenth Season continues with Michael Hearne, Brian Kalinec, Greg Whitfield, Mark Jungers, Talia Bryce, Stoney Gabel, Eric Gerber, and Chazz Bessette. Not really a performance nor an interview nor a song swap nor a lecture, but with elements of all, host and guests have explored the art and craft of songwriting for over nine years.

The Dr. Eugene Clark Library Lyceum is the oldest continually operating library building in Texas. Its ambiance offers a special intimacy for Evenings with the Songwriter, appreciated by audience and guests alike. The series is presented to the public free of charge on the last Tuesday of the month (except December), thanks to City of Lockhart Library Director Bertha Martinez and her staff. Support comes from local Friends of the Song sponsors Todd Blomerth & Patti Payne, Donaly & Clare Brice, and Robert & Esther Wilson.
